

The 4th Annual Symposium of East Asian Association of Insolvency and Restructuring

“Effectiveness and Efficiency of Insolvency and Restructuring”

Welcome Address

I am very pleased to invite you to the 4th Annual Symposium of East Asian Association of Insolvency and Restructuring.

Instability and uncertainty of world economy has brought the attention of social leaders to insolvency and restructuring more often than the past. More than 200 leading specialists of Japan, china and Korea will attend this symposium and share their experience on insolvency and restructuring issues. Even though each country stands in different situations and faces different problems, it is common that we all aims at enhancing effectiveness and efficiency of insolvency and restructuring regime, which is the theme of this Symposium. Most outstanding specialists in the region participate in the Symposium as speakers and discussants. And also floor is open wide for questions and answers.

I look forward to meeting you at the Annual Symposium of EAAIR which is held at Ewha Womans University, Seoul, Korea on 3rd and 4th November, 2012.
